

Abstract Submission Deadline: March 31, 2010

The SIIU invites you to submit brief abstracts on the topic of infection and inflammation in urology for presentation at the 2010 annual meeting. The meeting will include a poster session in which a portion of the accepted abstracts will be presented. There will be no podium presentation of abstracts.

Abstracts should be prepared in standard American Urological Association format and submitted by email or fax by March 30, 2010, to:
